

Home

Deals

News

Sports

Contests Blogs Today's ads

Belle Edwards, CRS 308-530-0659

102 N. Dewey - 534-0500 - beu77@juno.com PREFERRED GROUP, P.C.

Photos

News Alerts Special Sections Subscription

Videos

Place An Ad

SAVER

54° Overcast

Obituaries

Classifieds

BIG RED

АИТО ВООК

E-Paper

findit@

NPTELEGRAPH.COM

Life

Opinion

HUSKERS

Thanks for visiting nptelegraph.com. You're entitled to view 12 free articles every 30 days. Then, if you enjoy our site and want full access, we'll ask you to purchase an affordable subscription.

11 Remaining

Agriculture

Welcome to the site! Login or Signup below. Login | Signup

NEBRASKA'S BEST

KEPT SECRET

We're always interested in hearing about news in our community. Let us

Submit news

SUBMIT YOUR NEWS!

know what's going on!

Home ▶ News

Story Share Print Font Size: Comments Image (2)

Blaze destroys Enterprise in Curtis

Previous Next

Blaze destroys Enterprise in Curtis

The building that housed the Frontier County Enterprise smolders on April 17. A passerby reported the structure fire just after 3 a.m.

₹365

f Like

Kamie Stephen/North Platte Telegraph

on April 17. The building was declared a total loss.

Blaze destroys Enterprise in Curtis

North Platte Telegraph

Mon Apr 18, 2016. By Kamie Stephen kamie.stephen@nptelegraph.com

Posted: Sunday, April 17, 2016 6:21 pm | Updated: 11:04 am,

CURTIS -- As the roof crashed down on the Frontier County Enterprise building in Curtis, Tori Willis realized they were going to lose everything.

Willis owns the weekly publication with her husband Bob; the paper was established in 1886. The couple was awakened early Sunday morning after a student returning home from Maywood's prom spotted flames coming from the building on Center Avenue.

just after 3 a.m. on April 17, according to a press release issued Sunday morning by Frontier County Sheriff Dan 50x50px - use in 300px width player Rupp. Page Load Hover

The teenager called the Frontier County Sheriff's office

Click here for photos. When the authorities arrived at scene the was completely engulfed. By 3:30 a.m. Willis herself bolting the four blocks from her home to the "My husband drove down immediately," Willis said. "I grabbed the camera, like a true reporter, and I ran. It was only four blocks, but it was the longest four blocks of my

The sheriff's office and Curtis Rescue Squad were the

life."

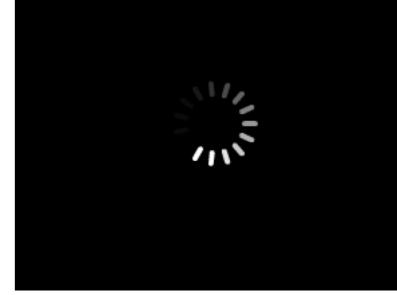

first on the scene; Maywood Fire Department was also dispatched after mutual aide was requested. It took approximately two hours to get the fire under control, Rupp said in the release; during that time, Willis

The Willises purchased the Frontier County Enterprise and the building about 14 years ago. The building was built in the early 1900s and Willis said she thought it had housed the newspaper since it was completed.

Most Read

Stories

More videos:

DON'T SWEAT QUURAVAN TA REFRIGERATION, INC. HEATING, AIR-CONDITIONING,

EMPSTA

south of the Enterprise office were saved, but sustained smoke damage.

More information will posted on nptelegraph.com as it becomes available.

Heating and Cooling Products

REFRIGERATION & ELECTRICAL SERVICE

the next issue into the hands of readers.

f Like < 365

of reality.

release.

"I loved that old building," Willis said. "It's such a big loss. It's been such a part of our lives for so many years." The building was declared a total loss and almost everything inside it is either gone or buried beneath the rubble. Residents stopped by the Enterprise building several times on Sunday, expressing great sadness over the loss. Archives were stored in the building meaning original copies of papers spanning 130 years are gone. Willis said luckily, they had been sending papers to the Nebraska state archives and while they may not all be on microfilm, many copies are.

Once the sun came up on Sunday morning, Willis got her first look at the building and she was hit with another wave realized that this is really happening and it's not a nightmare." The family took a trip to North Platte on Sunday to load up on office supplies including pens, printers and computer

"I looked through there and I saw sky," Willis said. "I saw all of the damage. That was another moment when I

An unoccupied building North of the enterprise office was damaged. A mechanic shop and lumber storage building

"To remain a legal newspaper we have to print 52 issues a year," Willis said, as she sat on the floor of a temporary space in the Curtis Mall.

monitors so they could get this week's paper put together. Willis said she's in shock, but they're focusing on getting

The publication usually prints on Tuesdays, but Willis said they're going to shoot for Thursday this week. The cause of the fire is unknown and is currently under investigation by the State Fire Marshal, Rupp said in the

Most Commented

Facebook

Tweets from @NPTelegraph/telegraphconnection

Telegraph Connection

- 1 Comment

Add a comment...

- Sort by Oldest •

My prayers to the current owners. The archive loss is also heartbreaking. Good lord. 130 years of archives gone, even if some saved on microfilm. So many good memories of that place.

Like · Reply · Apr 18, 2016 3:40pm · Edited

Facebook Comments Plugin

695 E Halligan Drive North Platte, NE 69101 308-532-4339 | 800-532-0029 WeatherThreat.com Closings All Categories Cozad Community Hospital Surgery RN

TELEGRAPH

Select A Video

To The Right

Residence Life Manager Great Plains Health Security Guard, Pharmacy Tech & More! Community View All

Register for Today's

Headlines

sent to your email inbox.

Great Plains Health

Nebraska College of

Technical Agriculture

Now Hiring

(308) 532-1500 Toll Free (800) 685-1825

